G. W. Swimmers Win From W. & L.

Buff and Blue Takes First and Second Place in All Events Except Two; Capt. Dickey Makes Highest Individual Score of Meet—Makes 13 of 52 Points; Time for Events Compares Favorably With Collegiate Meets.

Capturing first and second place in every event but two, the George Washington swimmers, the youngest sporting interest at the University, decisively beat the Washington and Lee navigators in a meet between the two schools held at Lexington, Va., Saturday, March 5th. The Hatchettes had it all their own way, as the final result of 52-19 will show.

The first event and victory for G. W. was the relay race. Koblegard, MacEwen, Dahlquist and Capt. Dickey swam it in 1 minute and 48 seconds, beating their competitors by a fair margin. In the next event, the 50-yard dash, the G. W. score received a boost of 8 points from the efforts of Capt. Dickey and Dahlquist, who finished first and second, respectively, the third place going to Griner of Washington and Lee. Ford Harvey, closely followed by Maitland, captured the breast stroke, leaving the Generals third place. The same story was told in the 100-yard dash, as Dahlquist took first honors, with Dickey a close second, while the Virginia boys were represented in third place by Merkle.

Washington and Lee received the decisions in the fancy diving event, as Smith was awarded first place, Poch, W. and L., second place. The third place went to MacEwen, of George Washington. A 55-foot-6-inch plunge was good enough to give Ruston, W. and L., first place, while second place went to Stokes and third to Jenkins, of the Generals. The last event of 222 yards went to MacEwen and Stokes, both of G. W., while Benton added another tally to the Generals' results by placing third.

The time for the events were very good and compare favorably with the time made in collegiate meets last year. Dickey broke the Washington and Lee record for the back stroke, doing it in 34 seconds. The results of this meet, the first one held, is very encouraging, giving the swimmers a foundation for the belief that they will annex several more meets before the season is over.

Capt. Granville Dickey led his teammates in individual scoring, as he was responsible for 13 of the 52 points scored by the Hatchettes. Two firsts and a second accounted for the 13 points. Dahlquist was second, with a first and a second, giving a total of 8 points acquired. MacEwen and Stokes came next, each with 6 points. However, these points were earned in different ways. MacEwen got a first and third, while Stokes finished second in two events. The whole team deserves praise for its very creditable work.

Washington and Lee gave excellent treatment and accommodation to the Hatchette swimmers and did all they could to make the stay a pleasant one.

WILL HOLD LOCAL MEET.

Georgetown, Maryland State, Gallaudet and Catholic University are planning a quadrangular track meet to be held April 23 mainly to practice the athletes for the Penn games, which will be held April 29 and 30, and for the South Atlantic meet, which will be staged at Georgetown May 14.

The coaches at the four institutions are heartily in favor of the plan, as it will give the men much needed training. The place for holding the quad meet will be announced later.

PROFESSOR DOYLE SPEAKS.

Prof. Henry Gratian Doyle spoke at a meeting of the Spanish-American Athenaeum, which was held on Wednesday evening, March 9, at 8.30, at the Thompson School, Twelfth and L Streets Northwest.

G. W. WILL HOLD RETURN MEET SATURDAY AT Y.M.C.A.

Washington and Lee Brings More Men for Second Meet; Activity Cards Will Admit to Meet.

With more men eligible than they had at the last dual meet, in which G. W. decisively won, the Washington and Lee swimmers hope to outswim the Hatchettes in a return meet, which will be held in the Y. M. C. A. pool, 1736 G Street, Saturday, March 12, at 8 o'clock.

However, it is not expected the extra Washington and Lee men will materially affect the final results, as the Hatchettes won last time by a 52-19 score, having a 31-point margin to fall back on. It is expected many G. W. students will attend the meet at the Y. M. C. A. this Saturday, as they will be glad of the opportunity to see this winning combination in action.

Student activities blanks for this semester will admit to the meet, or if not a tax signer, 50 cents will do the trick. Don't forget the time, 8 o'clock Saturday, March 12; the place, Y. M. C. A., 1736 G Street Northwest.

SPANISH CLUB HEARS TALK ON PHILIPPINES

Lecture Illustrated With Slides Loaned By Philippine Representative; Lecture on Central America at Next Meeting.

At the last meeting of El Circulo Espanol, which was held on last Thursday evening, March 3, in the lecture room of 2017 G Street, one of the members, Mr. Ricardo Sabella, gave a very interesting lecture on the Philippine Islands, from which he but lately came. The lecture was well illustrated with interesting slides loaned by the Philippine Representative to the United States Congress, which were exhibited by two countrymen of Mr. Sabella.

The next meeting of the club is to be held on the 22d of March, at which Mr. Chamuro, the son of the President of Nicaragua, will give a lecture on "The attitude of the Central American States toward the United States." At the conclusion of the lecture, which will be in Spanish, the members of the club will adjourn to the Chapel for dancing.

The club has selected an insignia for all active members, which is to be a small circular pin, with the name of the club around the outside and "G. W. U." in the center. The price of the pin is $1.50 for a gold filled and $2.75 for 10-karat gold, of which 50 per cent must accompany the order, which may be left with Mr. Joseph Palmer, chairman of the pin committee, or with either Mr. Passalacqua, Mr. Weigandt, or Mr. Peterson.

El Circulo Espanol extends an invitation to all the students of Spanish to come to the next meeting of the club and become members.

PHENOMENON IN WELLESLEY.

Although a Westfield (Mass.) girl aged 13 has passed the entrance examinations to Wellesley, she will not be allowed to enter until she is 14.

ALL OUT FOR BASEBALL!

Baseball season for 1921 will be inaugurated at a meeting in Lisner Hall Monday evening, March 14, at 8 p. m. All positions are open, and it will be up to you to prove that you are the man for the place. Manager Ed. Hanson has arranged a schedule of ten games for the season, with a promise of more. The Freshmen will also be represented in baseball with a nine, and a schedule is being arranged for them.

NINE HUNDRED STUDENTS BEHIND IN TAX PAYMENT

273 Students Have Failed to Pay Activity Tax for First Semester.

Reports from the treasurer's office in regard to the Student Activity pledge payments are none too encouraging. Despite the fact that the pledges are one month overdue, more than 900 students are in arrears, according to the recent report.

The number of students originally pledged to the payment of $10 for the year was 1,426. Of this number 273 students have failed to pay the first instalment. The money is collectable, however, and President Collier's recent statement in The Hatchet and on the official bulletin boards is expected to be followed by drastic measures in the event of failure of the students to respond to their pledges.

In Columbian College, Teachers' College, Graduate School, Engineering and Medicine the figures show that 710 students have failed to pay their second semester pledge. In the Law School 225 students have failed to pay the second instalment.

In all, 490 students of Columbian College, Teachers' College, the Graduate School, Engineering, Medicine and Law have paid the second instalment.

The second payment of the voluntary tax is calculated to pay the expenses of the debts incurred by students in the hospital for treatment, the Cherry Tree, baseball, tennis, debate, swimming and the other activities for the end of the year.

Attention is called to the slow payments in the second semester. There is little question but that the students will eventually pay. It is pointed out, however, that all student activities will have to be greatly curtailed if the pledges are not honored with more dispatch.

GIRLS' DEBATING TEAM DEVELOPS AT COLLEGE

Will Journey to West Virginia University for First Contest on Its Schedule.

It has been definitely decided that George Washington will have a girls' debating team this year. A debate has been arranged with West Virginia University, at West Virginia. The date probably will be April 22. It is possible that there will be a return debate with the same university here. The question is to be: "Resolved, That the legislatures of the several States should enact legislation to provide for the establishment of courts of industrial relations, similar to the Kansas court." The word "similar" is defined to mean similar in principle and allowing some variations in the composition of the court. The affirmative of the question will be argued by George Washington. West Virginia also will contest the negative of the question with Ohio Wesleyan College.

Three girls already have been chosen for the debate. They are Edith M. Archey, Helen Carlross and Fillmore Wilgus.

More tryouts will be held next week so that a second team may be formed to be prepared on the other side of the question. The coach would like to have a number of girls try out for places on the team.

TO HOLD TRIANGULAR DEBATE ON MARCH 11

G. W. Affirmative Team To Debate in Washington—Negative Team Goes to Swarthmore.

Debating teams representing George Washington University will engage in a triangular debate with West Virginia University and Swarthmore College on Friday night, March 11. The George Washington affirmative team will debate at 8.15 with West Virginia at the Y. M. C. A. Building in this city. The negative team will journey to Swarthmore, Pa., to meet the college there. The question for debate has to do with allowing labor, as such, in corporate industries to share in the management by selecting, from their own numbers, members of the boards of directors of the corporation.

Swarthmore College will send its negative team to Morgantown to engage the affirmative team of West Virginia University. This is the second year that these three institutions have engaged in a triangular debate. Swarthmore College won the championship last year by winning from both George Washington and West Virginia. George Washington, by winning from West Virginia, took second place.

The members of the George Washington team to debate West Virginia will be selected from George M. Moore, D. Malcolm Hodge, W. I. Cleveland, Helen R. Carlross and Thomas D. Behne.

The team to debate Swarthmore will be Leslie Jackson, Stanton Fitzgerald and Harry Perlman. Of these, Harry Perlman has twice represented George Washington in the past, Hodge and Cleveland each once. The others are newcomers.

In addition to the triangular debate, the George Washington University negative team will debate the affirmative team from Penn State in Washington on the evening of March 25.

HANSON RESIGNS FROM BASEBALL MANAGERSHIP

Student Council Names Hurley As Baseball Manager; Schedule of Council Meetings Changed.

At the last meeting of the Student Council, held Wednesday night, March 9, in Lisner Hall, the resignation of Edward Hanson, manager of the 1921 baseball team, was received and accepted. Fitzhugh Hurley was nominated by the Student Council for Manager of the 1921-22 basketball team, and his name was sent to the Board of Managers for election. The meeting night of the Council was changed from Wednesday to Tuesday nights. In the absence of the president, Miss Elizabeth Earnest presided.

The resignation of Manager Ed. Hanson was received and accepted with much regret by all of the members of the Student Council. Much of the success of the 1920 baseball aggregation was due to the untiring efforts of Hanson, who was then assistant manager. Mr. Hanson's resignation was submitted because of conflicting hours of school and periods of practice.

ART CLUB DISCUSSES NEXT ISSUE OF THE GHOST

Copy Must Be in by April 15; Buys Page in 1921 Cherry Tree.

A meeting of the Art Club was held on Wednesday evening, March 9, in the Chapel of Lisner Hall. President Arthur E. Nall called the meeting to order and brought up the all-important question of the next issue of "The Ghost." He told the society that although evident from congratulations which he had received from all sides, this first issue was a success, the next, which will probably come forth during Senior Week will be a bigger and a greater publication.

The Art Society, which has only recently formed within the University, has taken on such momentous proportions in size and distinction that a likelihood of securing rooms in the proximity of the school for the use and pleasure of the members is taking serious consideration. A page in the Cherry Tree has also been bought and although it is now too late for the group picture to be inserted, all the names of members and a general resume of the work of the society will be put in. All contributions for the next issue must be in the hands of the editor by April 15.

FRESHMEN CLEAN UP IN C. U. TRACK MEET

Altrop and Manson Win 2½ Points In South Atlantic Events; Run Away With C. U. Frosh.

In the big track meet held in the Catholic University gym at Brookland last Thursday night, March 3, the G. W. U. Frosh reaped sweet revenge for their defeats in basketball by literally running away from the C. U. frosh relay team. Earle Manson and Altrop won 2½ points between them in the South Atlantic events.

Altrop led off for the Hatchettes and gave Jimmie Moyle, the second runner, a good lead; John Loehler and Earle Manson steadily increased the lead, so that the G. W. team won the race by a big margin.

Earle Manson placed fifth in his event, the 440-yard dash of the South Atlantic Intercollegiate Association. In the high jump Altrop tied for fourth place with Maroney, of Georgetown. Although John Loehler didn't place in his event of the 50-yard hurdles, he deserves credit for winning first place in his heat when the competition he was up against is considered. He ran against such track stars as Le Gendre, of Georgetown, and Aaronson, of Johns Hopkins.

The whole team deserves credit for its performance, considering the amount of practice the team was able to get before the meet.

EIGHT SCHOOLS ENTERED BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Will Present Winners With Championship Plaque; Propose to Match Winner With Philadelphians.

Eight schools have been entered in the George Washington University basketball tournament which will be staged under the auspices of the G. W. Club at the Central Coliseum, Ninth and Pennsylvania Avenue, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 10, 11 and 12.

Baltimore City College, the champion of the Maryland metropolis, will meet Eastern High School of this city at 2 p. m. Thursday afternoon in the first game of the tournament. Immediately following, Central High, also of this city, will tackle the Alexandria High School quint, which has beaten the best schools of Northern Virginia and is preparing to attend a similar tournament to be held at the University of Virginia next week. In the third game Loyola floor-men, of Baltimore, will engage the Western High team, the runner-up of the local championship series this year, while Tech, the Washington champions, will battle the fast Annapolis High team in the final game, Thursday afternoon.

On Friday the semi-finals will be held. The first of these two games will start at 3 o'clock. The final game will be played at 2 p. m. Saturday afternoon, March 12.

The winner of the tournament will be presented with a championship plaque, while each member will be given a George Washington University watch fob and, if the plans of the G. W. Club go through, they will meet the best team of Philadelphia. The team that will represent the Quaker City will be the best of 17 teams, so will afford ample competition.

James Y. Hughes, Earl Fuller and W. F. Fitzgerald have been picked to officiate at the tournament.

G. W. FACULTY NINE WILL BEGIN PRACTICE SOON

The success of the various activities of the University has invaded the egotism of the venerable and dignified professors of the Arts and Sciences Department. In the near future there will be developed what will be known as the Faculty Baseball Club. This will be composed of the august heads of all departments. A number have shown great interest and have promised to come out. Prof. Croissant will be manager of the team, and Bryan Morse is going to coach. Prof. Bolwell threatens to pitch. It is hoped that the four deans of the Arts and Science Department will engage in a fierce and bitter struggle for the coveted places in the outfield. The team will start practice soon.

ENROLLMENT FOR MID-YEAR SHOWS INCREASE

Exceeds Registration of Same Period in 1920 by Twenty-three Per Cent.

The total enrollment during the first month in the second semester, as shown by the records in the office of the secretary, is 444, an increase of 85 over that for the same period last year. A statement of the enrollment in all departments of the University for the present school year is given below:

	Enrollment Jan. 30.	February Additions.	Total Feb. 28.
Graduate Studies.....	201	13	214
Columbian College.....	1754	242	1996
Engineering College.....	487	45	532
Teachers' College.....	264	34	298
Medical School.....	113	0	113
Law School.....	782	110	892
Pharmacy School.....	14	0	14
Totals.....	3615	444	4059

The records for the school year 1919-20 show an enrollment of 3,440 for the first semester and 359 for the month of February, a total of 3,799 on February 28. The enrollment for the first semester of 1920-21, 3,615, combined with that for the month of February, 444, gives a total registration of 4,059, or a gain of 260 over last year.

JOHN LOEHLER TO GET PENTATHLON TRIAL

Johnnie Loehler, star football and basketball player, will be given a chance to become a track star. Coach Morse intends to enter him in the pentathlon which will be held in Franklin Field April 30.

Loehler has the build to make a track man, as he is over 6 feet tall and weighs around 175 pounds. He is still young, being 18 years of age, so has plenty of time to develop into a first-class track star.

With training, he ought to make a good showing this year, as he has hurled the discus about 110 feet, the javelin about 140 feet, while he has jumped well over 5 feet in the high jump.

PHI DELTA DELTA RECEIVES WOMEN LAWYERS OF THE CITY

About 300 women students of law and practicing attorneys of Washington enjoyed the hospitality of Phi Delta Delta Women's Legal Fraternity at a reception given Sunday afternoon, March 6, at the new home of Lambda chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa at 1603 Massachusetts Avenue, probably the finest fraternity house in the city. The guests included prospective lawyers from George Washington University Law School, Washington College of Law, National Law School, women lawyers now engaged in general practice here and those holding legal positions in the Government service, and many women prominent in the political and social life of the capital.

Miss Laura Volstead, Law '18, and now secretary to her father, Hon. Andrew J. Volstead, Representative from Minnesota, received the guests. They were then escorted by other members of the fraternity to meet Mrs. Annette A. Adams, former Assistant Attorney General; Mrs. Helen Gardener, United States Civil Service Commissioner; Mrs. Mina Van Winkle, head of the women's department of the police force; Miss Mary O'Toole, president of the Women's City Club; Mrs. Frances Axtell, Workmen's Compensation Commissioner; Mrs. Edward Costigan, president of the Consumers' League; Mrs. Clara Sears Taylor, of the Rent Commission; Judge Kathryn Sellers, of the Juvenile Court; Mrs. Merton L. Ferson, wife of the dean of the Law School; and Miss Harriet Barbour, president of Zeta chapter of Phi Delta Delta.

FRATERNITY BASKETBALL.

A large crowd was disappointed on February 28 when Kappa Sigma failed to show up for its match with Kappa Alpha. This was the first forfeited match of the season.

The match between Phi Sigma Kappa and Sigma Phi Epsilon scheduled for February 28 will be played on March 14. The Sigma Nu-S. A. E. game scheduled for March 3 will be played on the same night. These games will complete the season. The championship match between the winners of the two leagues will be held at the Epiphany gym on March 17.

COMMITTEE SETS DATE OF INTERFRATERNITY PROM

Will Be Held at Rauscher's on March 18; Proposed to Present Cup Same Night.

The interfraternity prom will be held at Rauscher's on the night of March 18. At a meeting of the association held Sunday it was decided that an invitation be extended to the deans of all departments to attend as guests.

The dance, which is to be formal, will commence at 9 o'clock and last until one. Meyer Davis' music, which added so much to the Junior Prom, will be secured for the occasion. Refreshments will be served by Le Maison Rauscher.

The committee on the prom is composed of the following men: Howard Espey, chairman, Kappa Alpha; Glenn Corbett, Kappa Sigma; Jean Boardman, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Frank Yates, Sigma Nu.

It has not as yet been definitely decided, but is being seriously proposed, to present the victorious bowling team, Sigma Nu, the trophy cup during this dance. The names of the members of the team will be engraved on the cup, which, from all accounts, will be of a very beautiful design.

G. W. GIRLS' SWIMMING TEAM TO MEET CENTRAL

Lost Last Meet by Small Margin; Expect to Turn Trick This Time.

George Washington girl swimmers will have a chance to avenge the defeat received at the hands of the Central High girls' varsity in the meet held Thursday, February 17, when the two teams stage a meet the latter part of March. The exact date will be decided upon and announced later.

The College girls expect to win this meet, for they were only defeated by eight points last time, which is exceptionally good, considering that the high school team had 18 swimmers entered to 5 for the wearers of the Buff and Blue.

Since that time more girls have come out, but there still are plenty of vacancies for those who wish to join the team.

MEDITATION.

The other day we attended a concert at which an eminent composer played. Under the spell of his music we felt as if some one had lifted us high above the sordidness of earth, up amongst the stars, and then, no they did not drop us, rather they put a sidewalk under our feet and left us there. It was the jest of life.

Of course, you all know Archie, the cockroach that runs around Don Macquis' "Sun Dial" and intermittently writes for relief. Yes, Well, the other afternoon while I was searching my portfolio for inspiration for this column I had a visit from 'Arry, a tumble bug, who claims to be Archie's English cousin.

"Ullo," said 'Arry, "Ere's another of these columnists who doesn't know what to write. Archie's told me about your species and really I must say the Old Deah drew a perfect picture. The only trouble with Archie is that he reads too much." (He had dropped his English accent, which I believe he uses for effect like people from Virginia.) "Yes, he is always wasting his time over this book or another and never doing anything useful. I can't imagine why he wastes his time over these fool books. A cockroach could put his time to such good advantage in the pantry or the kitchen instead of mooning around the library like a bookworm.

"Now, look at my case. I am a tumble bug and my father was a tumble bug before me and his father before him. We trace our ancestry back to the Ark. In fact, we were the first tumble bugs in England. One of my ancestors brought his family with him from Rome in 55 B. C. You remember, of course."

(So of course, I remembered.)
"Well, to get back to my story. I should think Archie would get tired of reading so much. Now, I claim I get on just as well without reading. When I was in college I used to read, but that was years ago. Why, I read Shakespeare and Milton and—yes, Chatterton. You know, the chap that starved in a garret. Silly, wasn't it? After I got my education I stopped wasting my time on such stuff. Now I am married and have quite a respectable family. Four is respectable, is it not?"

"Yes, quite respectable," I replied. "But, by the way, 'Arry, what do you do for a living?"

"Oh, I am a college professor." Whereupon I was so shocked that I shook the desk and he tumbled to the floor and ran away.

Sour Grapes

Sometimes I wish that the world was different; for instance, that I had been born good-looking, or with brains, or with money. I'd like to be a football man so that the common horde would look up at me with pride and envy; or the president of my class so that the mob would fall down and paw the earth as I passed, and attribute it to "awe and majesty." Or that I had a big car which I could drive down to school every day with increasing popularity.

I'd like to be a ladies' man and never be seen without two or three coeds on each arm, as some fellows we might mention. Oh, that I had never seen the government service and known a chief clerk's haughty tyranny. Or I wish that I could go to school in the daytime or that I had a soft job up "on the Hill," where you get paid in proportion to the amount you do not do.

I would also like to be one of the leading politicians of the University and "drop-in" on six tea dances New Year's afternoon with patronizing atmosphere—and be on the student council and everything. But my greatest wish is to be an orator and startle the sleepy Columbian Debating Society with my fiery eloquence.

Then I think I would like to be a journalist, so Rhame would print my stuff and you would read it. It would also be desirable to have more money so as not to be on such intimate relation with the treasurer (i. e., get personal letters from him, etc.). Furthermore, it would please me very much if I could have the unconscious attitude of feeling that the Good Lord had created me so far above the ordinary run of men that I could just naturally be exclusive and snub people every so often.

Or if my father were prominent, I could then rest on his personality and achievements instead of my own. Won't somebody adopt a poor, struggling youth? Would also like to be able to make good grades and shine in class so that the faculty would smile down on me and Prof. would not say, "Mr. —, have you dropped my class?" when I thought I was getting along perfectly. O. K.

Oh, to be a member of the Dramatic Club and make the cast and cause the crowd to weep bitter tears and melt their hearts of stone at such unheard of histrionic presentation! Or to be a charter member of some new flourishing organization, with Victor Berger as patron.

But since Fortune does not smile down upon me, why should I not excuse myself as the fox did when he wanted the berries that make the famed Bryan beverage and found them sour? College honors—the passing bubbles of an idle hour! What will they mean ten years from today? Some of these Poor Working Devils that are now so far beneath our notice may some day rise to heights of glory greater than we can conceive. So—

"Let not ambition mock their useful toil,
Their homely joys and destiny obscure;
Nor grandeur view with a disdainful smile,
The short and simple annals of the poor."

But—"after you get what you wanted, you don't want what you wanted at all," so why struggle for honors? Let it rest at that.

SUMMER SCHOOLS INCREASE.
At least 366 institutions of higher grade are known to have conducted summer schools during 1920. In the 264 who reported their enrollment to the Commissioner of Education, there was an increase in the attendance over that of 1919 of 26,778 students.

HAWAII ATTRACTS COLLEGE MEN
Hawaii is proving an attractive exhibition ground for American college talent. The University of Nevada's football team has taken a trip to Honolulu to play with various Hawaiian teams in post-season games. The Leeland Stanford University Glee Club plans a two weeks' trip to Hawaii in the spring.

WHAT man doesn't like his pipe? There's nothing whets your smoke desires like seeing a good pipe lying around. Because you know that in it is the only real smoke satisfaction. Your appetite will be doubly whetted if it is a WDC, because in WDC Pipes all the sweetness and mellowness of the genuine French briar is brought out by our own special seasoning process. Then, too, WDC Pipes are good to look at. The designs are pleasing and workmanship perfect. You'll agree with us that our craftsmen are accomplishing their purpose—to make pipes that are without peers in all the world. Ask any good dealer. Be sure and look for the Triangle trademark. It's a guarantee against cracking or burning through.

Junior Week

Junior Week, adventurously and enterprisingly initiated by the class of nineteen twenty-one, and successfully repeated by the class of nineteen twenty-two, bids fair to become an established institution at George Washington University. Placed this year so as to coincide with the period of the centennial celebration, Junior Week has been socially a marked success and a credit to the University and has financed itself, yielding approximately an even break. A reception, a prom and a play, all affairs of the first order, have done much to bring the student body together. They have done much to promote a spirit of camaraderie and good-fellowship, to foster a feeling of community interest that G. W. needs. Such affairs put college spirit into the college.

For the first time the resources and energies of the five colleges have been combined and coordinated. An effective, close-knit organization, operating through committees on which were proportionately represented all the schools and the various social organizations, and moved by serious and sincere purpose, has put Junior Week across strong. The Juniors have done the University a real service, and the University thanks them.

Stupid Steve Says:-

Friends, critics, and indifferenters: You probably noticed the last 3 weeks that their aint been no Stupid Steve in our paper. I thot I wuld give u all a rest and inseedently take a blow myself. Some 4 or 5 pursons have ast me wi their aint bean no copy and for me to right some more. If u get tired of this stuff, just let me no, as I find it much easier not to write this than to write it.

Stupid Steve.

Dear Stupe: A fellow down here at school borrowed my dress shirt for the Junior Prom and has not brought it back to me yet. I need it myself for a dance coming soon, and when I remind him of it and ask him why he don't bring back my shirt, he says it's a long tail and not to worry.

Freddie.

Dear Freddie: Why doncha get one like he did. I know 2 or 3 fellows down here that own shirts of their own.

Dear Stupe: I have some good poems for you, but I can't find The Hatchet office. What shall I do with them?

Answer: The Seniors, apparently by mistake, carted the blame thing up to their rummage sale. If nobody buys it, I suppose they'll bring it back. So hang on to the poems for a week.

Dear Stupe: How come they called the Arts and Sciences banquet the "Centennial banquet"? N. O. Sey.

Dear Nosey: They expected 100 couples.

Dear Stupe: How do you dance the "camel walk"? Ambitious.

Dear Amb.: I don't—unless it's with some other fellow's girl.

Dear Stupe: I want to register a protest. I contributed to "The Ghost," but my name did not appear among the contributors.

Insulted.

Dear Insulted: That's nothing. We all contributed "two bits" to "The Ghost" in order to get a copy.

Dear Stupe: "T'other day I met one of the Ayers twins, and now I don't know which one it was. What would you advise?"

Answer: "Try and get them both together, then walk past them three times and try and notice which one smiles."

Here's a Dumb One.

"She stood before the mirror,
 With her eyes closed very tight,
 And tried to see just how she looked
 When fast asleep last night."

—Ex.

Dear Stupe: The morning papers said "the Red leader was about to fall," but they didn't say who he was falling for. Is it one of those Russian dames? Xivobsky.

Dear Madame X: No! You see, he was Le(a)nin too far over and lost his balance.

Dear Steve: My "frat" is to have a banquet about the middle of March. The Interfraternity Prom is also about that time. What can we do to cut down expenses of the two parties?

H. C. L.

Dear H. C. L.: I understand they are going to have something to eat at the prom. Why not bring your gang to the prom and hold the banquet at intermission?

Transfer? A fat chance!

I READ a story.
 ABOUT A fellow.
 WHO SLIPPED.
 ON AN icy hill.
 AND STARTED to slide.
 AND TRIPPED up.
 A FAT lady.
 WHO SAT on him.
 AND RODE down hill.
 TO THE foot.
 AND THEN he wheezed.
 "MADAM, YOU'LL have,
 TO GET off here.
 THIS IS as far,
 AS I go."
 SO WHEN a new clerk.
 WHO DIDN'T know.
 MY REGULAR smoke.
 TRIED TO sell me.
 SOME OTHER kind.
 OF CIGARETTE.
 I REMEMBERED that yarn.
 AND TOLD the clerk.
 JUST WHERE to get off.
 OTHER KINDS will burn.
 AND GIVE off smoke.
 I'LL ADMIT that much.
 BUT THAT'S as far.
 AS I'LL go.
 THERE'S ONLY one kind.
 OF CIGARETTE.
 THAT CAN, and will, and does.
 REALLY "SATISFY."

OTHER cigarettes may please your taste for a time—but that's as far as they go. With finer tobaccos—both Turkish and Domestic—and with finer blending—Chesterfields give you the fullest possible cigarette enjoyment. They always satisfy. It's the blend—and it can't be copied.

Pour les dames

We told Mr. Ladd we had a message for the co-eds and asked him how to address them. Girls- seemed too familiar; Ladies- a bit formal; Women- never. So Mr. Ladd, quick as a flash, said say it with flowers or in French. And there you are.

Which is apart from our message. We started out to tell you how unusually good looking are Warwick Lodge Sport Suits; to describe their styles which are originated by and exclusive with us; explaining why they differ so from sport suits of nondescript origin. Particularly do we recommend the Tuxedo Model the copy with the versatile coat.

$17.75 to $37.50

Besides sport clothes: Straw sailors, silk underwear, stockings, handkerchiefs, sweaters and loads of et ceteras. Our things are just a little better without costing a bit more. At least that's the impression we get from those we serve.

Spring and Easter 1921

SIMPLICITY is the keynote of the Spring styles for 1921. It is the honest answer to the "What-should-men-wear" question. The theory is paramount in men's clothing---and runs the gamut through all the lines of men's Spring merchandise. And rightly the return to the normal in fashion has been accompanied by a return to the normal in price. For instance—

Men's Spring Suits

Hand-tailored of the finest all-wool unfinished worsteds—cashmeres and serges. Suggesting in finish and style the art of the finest custom-made tailoring. The price only reveals the truth.

$35 to $60

Spring Top Coats

Foreign Tweeds and Tailorings—as well as Domestic. Including the famous makes of Kenneth Durward and Richard Austin.

$35 to $60

$5.00

University students will find this a most interesting study to take up. The Loomis Radio School is conducting night classes from 7 to 9 o'clock five nights in the week and preparing young men to pass the Government examination for the first grade commercial radio license. Those not interested in obtaining a license may take our short course, which will qualify them to receive the code at the rate of 15 to 20 words a minute and learn to operate a receiving apparatus. This will afford one the opportunity of pleasant and fascinating use of many a spare hour.

Among the Fraternities

KAPPA SIGMA.

Alpha Eta has organized a baseball team and will play the Deltas a week from the coming Sunday.

Jack Daily will represent Kappa Sigma on the Interfraternity Council in the future.

Roland C. Taylor, '05, was a visitor in Washington during inauguration week.

James DeForce, who has been attending Johns Hopkins this past semester, has located in the city and intends to register at college.

Howard K. Shaw, of Pi chapter at Swarthmore University, has registered for a course in Columbian College and will in all probability be a candidate for the football team next year, having played on the Swarthmore eleven during the past season.

SIGMA CHI.

The initiates are giving a dance in honor of the active members and alumni on Friday, March 11.

A joint meeting of the Robert Farnham Memorial Association and the Active was held on Sunday and definite arrangements were made concerning the new house.

An inauguration dance was given at the chapter house on Saturday, March 5, and a number of out-of-town Sigs were present.

Bro. Stuart Smith, of Omega chapter, North Western University, is attending George Washington University this semester and will probably be here indefinitely.

An informal smoker will be held at the house on Tuesday, March 8, and all active members and alumni are invited.

SIGMA NU.

Taylor, of Lambda chapter, Washington and Lee University, was the guest of Delta Pi during the inauguration.

Hal Enlows has sufficiently recovered from pneumonia to take a trip to Cuba, where he expects to spend some time.

The chapter is glad to learn that Horace Young is again able to resume his duties as manager of the swimming team. Young has been sick for the past week.

THETA DELTA CHI.

Eugene S. Thomas was initiated on March 6.

Edward G. Wingate has returned to Washington after spending six months in Marathon, Tex.

Bro. Palmer, of the Epsilon charge, William and Mary, is the guest of the local charge.

The freshmen are preparing a play to be given at the 25th anniversary banquet of the local charge on March 26.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON.

During the week of inauguration, D. of C. Alpha entertained the following visiting brothers: Bradshaw, from Virginia Alpha, Richmond College, Richmond; Frost, from Kansas Beta, Kansas State Agricultural College, at Manhattan; and Seymour, from New York Alpha, Syracuse University, of the city of New York.

Bro. Verne Simmons is now able to sit up regularly and is very much improved in condition. He will soon be well enough to leave the hospital, but intends to rest the remaining part of this year at his home.

Bro. Clarence Owens entertained the brothers of D. of C. Alpha chapter at his home in Cleveland Park, Md., on Friday, March 11, with an informal dance.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA.

The Phi Sig "Inaugural ball" was held at the chapter house on Friday, March 4. Quite a number of the "bros" attended, including Clark Coleman and Doug Minor, former Lambda men, now attending the University of Pennsylvania, and who were in town for the inauguration.

All alumnus and active men are planning on attending the founders' day banquet, which will be held at the Hotel Lafayette on Tuesday night, March 15. It is rumored that the "goats" will be active between speeches and will no doubt offer some clever entertaining.

PHI DELTA PHI.

John Marshall Inn, of Phi Delta Phi, gave its second smoker of the year on the night of the 28th of February at the Burlington Hotel. There were some 75 present, including the members of the Inn, faculty, alumni and guests from the student body.

Chief Justice McCoy, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, talked to the Inn on the very interesting subject of "Justice and the Poor," pointing out the duties of the present and future members of the bar and of the country in that connection. Mr. Glassie, special assistant to the Attorney General, who talked to the Inn last fall on the "Regulation of Rents," talked for a few minutes and was followed by Prof. Wilson, who, with his usual line of humor, was highly entertaining and incidentally instructive. He came near telling the story of Klamm's experience recently in the Municipal Court. Ask him about it. Prof. Spaulding made quite a hit with a couple of songs and followed them up with a short talk. As usual, he received quite a glad hand from those present. After calling on Prof. Alden, the crowd turned to the "eats," after which Bros. John Daily, "Cam" Burton and "Vic" Rogers furnished some amusement at the piano.

Magister Harry Gillis presided and was general master of ceremonies, and the entertainment was in charge of Bro. McCoy, chairman of the program committee, and Bro. Neilson, chairman of the entertainment committee. They are all due a vote of thanks for the evening's success.

PHI DELTA DELTA.

Miss Laura Volstead, Law '18, is at present on a delightful trip to the Panama Canal Zone. A luncheon was recently given in her honor at St. Mark's, at which Mrs. Annette Abbott Adams was present.

Miss Bertha Pabst, Law '20, entertained Phi Delta Delta at her home Sunday, February 19, at a tea in honor of the alumnae members.

PHI MU.

The annual founders' day banquet of Phi Mu fraternity was held on March 4 at Franklin Square Hotel. Mrs. Hilding Bey, who acted as toastmistress, was introduced by Miss Elizabeth Speiser, president of the alumnae association. About 40 active members and alumnae were present at the banquet and additional guests came for dancing, which followed.

Miss Dorothy Haslup entertained the active chapter and alumnae association at a tea at her home on February 27.

Pledge service for Miss Julia Cook took place on March 1 in the fraternity rooms.

Phi Mu entertained at a very enjoyable luncheon in the rooms last Saturday.

LAW HONOR COMMITTEE CHOSEN.

In accordance with the rules of the Law School honor system, the classes last week elected members to serve as an honor committee. Those chosen to represent their classes were: Freshmen, A. J. Gronna, C. F. Price, H. W. Schmidt, H. A. Melton, Miss Pauline G. Wallace, W. A. Hunter and Raymond Wiseheart, ex officio. From the Junior Class were chosen W. I. Cleveland, Robert Morgan, W. W. Osness, Leslie Jackson, Brooks Hays and Marion Holliday, ex officio. From the Senior Class were elected Edith Archey, Harry Sokolov, S. W. Lacy, J. J. Wilson, Newell Ellison, H. T. Kay and Harry Campaign, ex officio.

WILL PRESENT CUP TO SIGM NU.

Sigma Nu fraternity will be awarded a handsome loving cup for its victory in the interfraternity bowling league at the interfraternity prom, to be held at Rauscher's, March 18.

The names of the individuals who played on the winning team will be inscribed on the cup. The committee that has been placed in charge of getting the cup has spared no effort to procure the best cup possible.

Prof.—Have you anything to offer before I bust you?
Bustee—No, sir; I'm broke.—Widow.
